The international exposition and conference this year is set to be bigger in scope and scale

Witness top-notch exhibitors, and industry leaders from India and abroad at CTL-BHP 2024

Exim India is back with its Mega Cargo Show, the CTL-BHP 2024 International Exposition and associated Conference, this Wednesday and Thursday, i.e. February 14-15, 2024 at Jio World Convention Centre, Pavilion III, Bandra Kurla Complex, Mumbai.

This is the 14th edition of South Asia's premier cargo and logistics event, which is set to bring together all stakeholders associated with the cargo, shipping, and logistics sectors - LSPs, manufacturers, exporters and importers, supply chain professionals, shippers and consignees, as well as policymakers and regulators - under one roof for an expansive two-day expo along with topical conference sessions on Cargo, Transport, Logistics, with focus on Breakbulk, Heavylift and Project Forwarding.

This year's edition scheduled to open today promises to be bigger in scope and scale. The theme for this year is, Smart and Sustainable Logistics - Driving Rapid Economic Growth, under which the who's who of the industry, including regulators and policymakers, will be deliberating on a host of relevant topics in multiple sessions across both days. A highlight is the participation of leading government

Gopal Krishna, IAS
